-VOLUME 11 NO. 114 TUESDAY JUNE 13, 1995-

An ongoing domestic dispute resulted in the death of a Dayton man yesterday afternoon around 4pm. According to Dayton Police Chief Buddy Bean, 36 year old Delbert Dinsmore had gone to his mother-in-law's home at 2003 N. Winfree and snatched his four children. Dinsmore and his wife Robin Raley were in the process of getting a divorce. Dinsmore left with the children, but then returned with a .38 caliber handgun. Chief Bean said that Dinsmore and Karen Raley, his mother-in-law, then wrestled on the ground just outside the home, and the gun discharged. Dinsmore was hit in the left shoulder, but there was no exit wound. Chief Bean said that the shooting would be referred to a Grand Jury to see if any charges will be filed. Dinsmore was Life Flighted to Hermann Hospital in Houston where he later died.

A three vehicle accident yesterday resulted in the death of 17 year old Brittney J. Shofner, of Ames. The accident occured at the intersection of Hwy 90 and FM 160 in Ames, around 9am. According to DPS Trooper Frank Huff, Shofner was turning left into the east bound of Hwy 90, when an 18 wheel tractor trailer driven by Iris Gene McKinzy, 58, of Kountze, hit her broadside. The truck and Shofner's car then collided with a Houston man's car that was stopped at the traffic light, in the east bound lane of Hwy 90. That car flew through the air for about 100 feet, before landing in a ditch, but the driver was not injured. McKinzy's truck then ran head on into a large pecan tree in the front yard of James Robert Domain's home. Witnesses said that if the truck had not hit the tree, it would have hit the home. Shofner was flown to St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Beaumont, where she died in surgery. She is the 8th traffic fatality in Liberty County this year.

Vickery said the suit claims that the truck driver, Amos Horstmann, and Allied Van Lines, were negligent for not heeding the siren and emergency lights on the ambulance. Vickery said the suit was filed in a Harris County Court, and that other suits may follow.

According to Dayton VFD Assistant Fire Chief Earl Heider, the home was completely involved when the fire fighters arrived at the scene. The Styrons were not at home at the time of the fire. Fire Fighters had a difficult time getting the fire out, since the home's metal roof kept a lot of heat in the home. About 10 Dayton fire fighters had to take several breaks to keep from being overcome with heat exhaustion. The home was completely destroyed.

The City of Liberty received word Friday that FEMA has denied their $4 million levee grant application. The City had hoped to used the grant funds to pay for a major portion of the construction of the levee, and other flood control projects. City Manager Norman Dykes said that he was disappointed the grant was denied, but the City will continue with their plans to build the levee. Dykes said they were prepared to fund the levee project without the FEMA grant, but it sure would have helped. Voters passed a half cent sales tax increase in May, solely for the purpose of funding the levee, and Dykes said the City will also be checking for other ways to help fund the project.

Change of Venue hearing for Larry Gohring began yesterday in Judge W.G. Woods' 253rd District Court. Gohring's daughter Carrie died as a result of a drug overdose back in 1992, and two years later he was indicted on charges of sexual assault of Carrie and another daughter. Two witnesses testified that a recent article by Houston Chronicle reporter Cindy Horswell would prevent Gohring from getting a fair trial in Liberty County. Horswell has been subpoenaed to testify in the hearing. The witnesses also said that reports on KSHN Radio, and in the Liberty Vindicator and the Liberty Gazette newspapers also had negative tones about Mr. Gohring. Under cross examination by District Attorney Mike Little, witness Kathy Southwell said that she had talked to about 12 people that not think Gohring could get a fair trial in Liberty County. The hearing is now in recess, and will not resume until June 16th.
